

DLP Cinema™ Lens Product Certification for
Joseph Schneider Optische Werke GmbH

1. Pursuant to Section 3.3 of the DLP Cinema™ Image Quality and Branding Agreement entered into between Joseph Schneider Optische Werke GmbH ("Schneider") and Texas Instruments Incorporated, acting through DLP™ Products ("TI") on 30 March 2001, TI has verified performance of the lens(es) described in Attachment A and hereby certifies said lens(es) for sale to TI DLP Cinema™ Projector OEMs.

2. Attachment A will be updated from time to time as TI certifies additional lenses for sale to DLP Cinema™ Projector OEMs. TI maintains the right, at its sole discretion, to terminate certification of any lens(es) described in Attachment A for failure to continue to meet the minimal optical performance requirements of the DLP Cinema™ Projection lens Family Specification (TI drawing 2502831) or for non-compliance with any of the terms and conditions of the DLP Cinema Image™ Quality and Branding Agreement.

3. Certification of products set forth in Attachment A is intended to enable Schneider to represent to TI DLP Cinema™ OEMs, DLP Cinema™ Dealers and End-Users that

- i) the certified lens, when used with DLP Cinema™ products will meet relevant TI reference designs and specifications, and;
- ii) the lens meets or exceeds the minimum optical performance outlined in the DLP Cinema™ lens specification.

This certification confers no other rights or obligations or warranties and Schneider shall not in any way represent to its customers anything to the contrary.

4. Certification of any product listed on Attachment A shall continue in effect until terminated by TI as set forth in Section 2 of this Certification or until termination of the DLP Cinema™ Image Quality and Branding Agreement, provided such termination is due to a violation of said agreement.
